1.1 Status of Digital Entertainment

Popular apps like, Amazon Music, Apple Music, Google Play, iHeartradio, Pandora, Soundcloud and Spotify, make available nearly all of the streamed music. These applications generated about $15-20 billion in revenue in 2016. According to estimates, they are expected to earn approximately $30 billion dollars in 2025. According to analysis, a large portion of these figures constitutes of monthly paid memberships and ads.

Due to globalization and the ability to easily and cost efficiently access transportation, more and more people are participating more intensively and faster on the international scale to concerts and world tours. With the progress of recording and production technologies, the widespread use of smart mobile phones and the widening of the internet connection, similar contents of the entertainment industry are consumed alive very quickly and then. The above-mentioned structures and production companies provide the delivery of this content to the consumer.

Ticket fees and the content and scope of the activities offered for these fees vary and increase in demand and utility. As a result, the organizer and the production company also profit from the services offered in the concert and event areas.

1.2. Industry Issues

Most of the channels that are providing access to music work with the concern of advertising in a certain structure. Most content comes from you being in the preliminary target audience and by reading your listening data. Even though the licensing fees and sustainable services are more reasonable, they provide their own financing with different kinds of memberships and they apply the most beneficial rates and wage policy to increase their overall profitability.

Large production companies or publishing companies offer content to consumers with particular priority for both political concerns and profitability goals. All these contents, from concert organizations, album recordings and live broadcasts, are presented to the market after being filtered by the policies governed by certain media companies. However, the artists who produce or perform music, regardless of whether they are world-class or amateur musicians, find themselves on platforms according to certain agreements and whether their music is suitable for the policies of the companies. The main problem is that music and content is being evaluated by profit-oriented structures, not by masses.

1.3. Cryptocurrency and Music Industry

Despite the financial size of the music and entertainment sector, the space occupied by Cryptocurrency in this volume is almost nonexistent. The emergence of projects that will launch a new era in the music industry have been prevented by the issue that ICO is open to manipulation, and investors not giving enough support to projects within the blockchain platform.

With the rise of Cryptocurrency, the number of projects related to music has increased just as in other sectors. However, one of the biggest obstacles in front of us as blockchain supporters is the limited areas in which we can use this renovation.

Let's change this!

2.1. VOXXO

SUMMARY

Above all, VOXXO will expand the scope of its use by moving the vision of the blockchain platform into a new space, and it is a project that will bring together software and entertainment in one go. What is innovative in this project and opens the way for change are the VOXXO components. These are: VOXXO Mobile App, VOXXO Live Events, VOXXO License Platform. With these components, starting from the most used vehicles of end-users to the production stage of the industry, a period of upwards directional change and liberation will be initiated.

GOALS

The pushing force of the VOXXO vision is the blockchain spirit and concept. Our primary goal is to get Cryptocurrency open to the music sector, which is an important place in real life, and to catch the project spirit that will enable constructive projects and Cryptocurrency to gain notable market shares. VOXXO aims to stop organizing, filtering or promoting in the sector and for music to reach people through the minimum influence in the chain. Moreover, it plans to open up revolutionary activities and productions in the sector. After music sales VOXXO is planning Crypto-financed world-class concerts, album recordings, live broadcasts will take place. There are even plans for a performance hall that works only with cryptocurrency.

REVOLUTION

VOXXO, unlike other concepts that develop ideas in the music industry using the blockchain platform, believes that it is important to change the means of delivering music before the liberation of the source of music. If society gets rid of the pressures of the current industry while accessing music, the sector will act according to the people. They will have to change the policies they apply according to user needs. Changing the pattern of demand in the market will ensure that it keeps pace with its current supply. With VOXXO's Live Events and License Platform, musical sources (Artists, Bands, Producers, Managers) will be obliged to join under this concept. When VOXXO strengthens, it will be in the business of allying with platforms that have the same target. Do not forget we believe in the power of the community.

2.2. VOXXO Token

VOXXO is an ERC20 Ethereum Smart Contract. It uses Ethereum's proven fast and secure structure. VOXXO believes in Ethereum and its community.

The main purpose of VOXXO Token is to make the music listening definition turn into a value. For this purpose, a VOXXO Token will equal 1 hour of music stream.

VOXXO is a brand new free platform for both music listening and music access. One of the near targets is to make people reach music using cryptocurrency, which will allow the music to create its own pricing policy on the market with VOXXO Token. With the licensing platform to be established as a medium term target, VOXXO will be able to directly determine the value of the music.

5.3. Roadmap

Crowdfunding

During the 6 months from November to March, crowd sales and airdrops will be established to support both investors and supporters, so project needs and financing needs will be met. Establishment of Cloud platform and servers, development of software, purchase of license services and establishment of management offices in certain points is our goal. We are aiming to reach sufficient strength thanks to the community. Aside from the structure we are building, we also plan to enter into a business alliance with similar Blockchain projects.

VOXXO Platforms Start Working

As of March, we will bring to life the VOXXO mobile application and we will finalize our crowd sale and airdrops, but we hope to continue with various bounty campaigns, during this process our most important target is to increase the service quality and try to optimize the VOXXO infrastructures. Our goal is to build a business relationship with a Cloud Service platform project based on blockchain, which will provide strength and contribute to the social vision.

At this stage, we'll show ads at a minimum to the user, and the ads which will be shown will be of projects that are on the blockchain platforms. Our aim will never be to earn advertising profits.

Expansion

In the second half of 2018 we will strengthen our license agreements and we will launch both our web platform and the first live concert stream. We will accelerate marketing and advertising work. We will increase our user base and market power.

Evolution

At the beginning of 2019 we will enter the evolution phase which is the most important goal of the VOXXO platforms. Here we will produce famous concerts, albums, and music videos financed using cryptocurrency. We will reach artists and performers who produce music directly with VOXXO. World license fee collectors will provide necessary applications and agreements. (PROs: ASCAP, BMI, SESAC, PRS, PPL) will reach agreement with direct distributors such as sector examples when the required volume of content is reached.
